

The past and future of coercion in Psychiatry

A lecture by Prof. Paul Appelbaum

Dollard Professor of Psychiatry, Medicine and Law, Director of the Center for Law, Ethics and Psychiatry, Columbia University. Past President of the American Psychiatric Association and the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law. Chair of the DSM steering committee for APA and the co-chair of the Standing Committee on Ethics at the WPA.

1 January 2020

Room 106, The Stanley Steyer
School of Health Professions Bldg.,
Tel Aviv University

17.30-18.00

Gathering at the foyer

18.00-18.10

Greetings

Tal Bergman-Levy MD, MsC, Head of the Israeli Mental Health Services, Ministry of Health

18.10-18.20

Coercion in Psychiatry - Current Israeli Status

Oren Asman, LLD, Attorney, Tel Aviv University

18.20-19.20

The Past and Future of Coercion in Psychiatry

Paul Appelbaum, MD, Columbia University

19.20-19.40

Short Remarks and Questions

Yuval Melamed, MD, Abarbanel Mental Health Center, Israel

Judge Yael Raz-Levi, District Court, Beer Sheva

Daniel Raz, LLM, Attorney, Legal Aid, Ministry of Justice

19.40-20.00

Questions from the Audience

Participation is free. Seats are limited. Register Now:
bioethicstau@gmail.com